PENTECOST SUNDAY

READINGS

1st Reading: Acts 2:1-11

The Spirit comes to the Apostles as tongues of fire.

Psalm 103:

Lord, send out your Spirit and renew the face of the earth.

2nd Reading:

1 Corinthians. 12:3-7,12-13

Be guided by the Spirit.

Gospel: John 20:19-23

The Spirit will guide the Apostles to all truth.

GOSPEL MEDITATION: When I was twenty-two years of age in August of 2000, I experienced World Youth Day in Rome. As for many of my generation, the event was life-changing for me. Surrounded by joyful, hope-filled young people from seemingly every nation and tongue, we were gathered around the Pope, sharing a common Faith and love. The Pope spoke to us of our shared family bond in the Church and invited us to give our lives in service to others. Now twenty-four years later, my life as a priest, like that of so many others from those special days, continues on that same path of love and unity — despite my many weaknesses. What makes that continuation possible?

This week's feast gives the answer: the Holy Spirit. The gift of God — His very life — the third person of the Trinity, is the Spirit who animates the entire Church and each member of it. He makes us one-in-love in a way that utterly exceeds human capacity. For example, he makes the apostles speak with tongues of fire, and everyone hears them in his own native tongue. The Holy Spirit is the means by which Jesus establishes a new family, one that crosses all possible boundaries of time, space, and culture. The Holy Spirit never tires in enthusing us for mission.

Aren't we longing to experience the Holy Spirit in a fresh way? Today we celebrate this untiring flame, once ignited on earth and burning still. So, we humbly cry out: Come, Holy Spirit, fill the hearts of your faithful, and enkindle in us the fire of your love! - Father John Muir ©LPi

The worshipping communities of Sacred Heart, Yeppoon & Mary Immaculate, Emu Park acknowledge the Darumbal People the traditional custodians of the land on which we gather, and pay respect to their elders: past, present, and emerging.

For we too are one in land, one in spirit, one in faith, united in God's love.

Message from the Hospitality Team...

HIGH TEA - what a delightful afternoon with our male waiters being a real 'hit'. Thank you to all who made the venture such a success both socially and financially. The food was delicious, the number of donations for raffles was mind-blowing, the service was extraordinary and Angel Flight will benefit to the tune of $1300. The Hospitality Team were delighted to see such enjoyment for all who attended.

*"Before I formed you in the womb
I knew you", Jeremiah 1:5*

Hail Holy Queen, Mother of Mercy,
Our life our sweetness and our hope;
To thee do we cry, poor banished children of Eve;
To thee do we send up our sighs,
mourning and weeping in the valley of tears.
Turn then most gracious advocate,

Thine eyes of mercy towards us and after this our exile, show unto us the blessed fruit of thy womb Jesus.
O clement, O loving, O sweet Virgin Mary!
Pray for us, O Holy Mother of God.
That we may be made worthy of the promises of Christ.

Thank you to Tess Beard and all the volunteers for making the beautiful corsages for our Mother's Day Masses.
